Note concerning us and the convention we have signed the contract & as far as today we are still moving forward to continue on having it

We understand that there are some important safety concerns that everyone has but rest assured the ppl of this Sub-committee are taking its due diligence, communication among us & hotel, consistently review information and putting in place safety & precaution measures to ensure that we have everyone's health & life at the upmost importance and concern.

We have information about the CDC guidelines that the hotel are operating under also the social distancing requirements the wear of mask and the taking of temperatures while participating in this year's event.

As a reminder we are still in Sept and we as a committee are taking this situations a day @ a time and we as A Area Sub-Committee are asking that we be supported, prayed for and with along with, have patience and understanding in trusting God
